HON. C. C. POWNING,
OF WASHOE.

HON. W. J. Westerfield....Of Lyon

A SCOTCH VERDICT.

The report of the Grand Jury will not satisfy the taxpayers of Ormsby county.

The charge made by the APPEAL that Commissioner Bray was taking contracts for road work etc., from the county in violation of the law, was found true by the Jury, but instead of recommending the District Attorney to take steps to deprive him of his office as the law provides they found that his work was well done and his charges reasonable.

On the question of suppressing the amount Bray took from the county, when it came to publishing the "bills allowed," they found that the parties responsible for this suppression were the proprietor of the Tribune, Mr. E. J. Parkinson or the County Clerk but they were unable to say which one of the two.

They recommended that hereafter the work be done correctly.

The main charges made by the APPEAL, which were against Bray and the Tribune were found to be true.

There is nothing left for the District Attorney now to do, than to proceed with the execution of the law makes the penalty for Bray's act a fine and the loss of his office.

THE COUNTY PRINTING.

The Grand Jury made no investigation whatever of the violation of the law which provides that all contracts over $500 must be advertised. The printing contract was $600 and not advertised. The statement that the APPEAL's bid excepted other than bound work, is incorrect.

The Commissioners agreed that the bid meant $49 a month for everything except bound work and the bid was so considered. Commissioner Morris voted for it "as the lowest bid" and Commissioner Martin said: "It is only a few dollars the lowest and we are not obliged to accept the lowest bid."

The editor of the APPEAL was not called on by the Grand Jury to testify in these matters.

Silver Before Party.

George W. Baker, of the firm of Baker, Wines and Dorsey is one of the most enthusiastic and consistent silver men on the Coast. He left the Democratic party because of Cleveland's hostility for silver, hoping he would do better. In that he has been disappointed and he now joins in the silver movement and becomes a member of the Washoe Silver league. He says no sincere advocate of free coinage can vote for either Cleveland or Harrison as they are both controlled by Wall Street and stand on platforms which are avowedly hostile to silver.

Mr. Baker was a recognized leader in Republican councils four years ago and as a member of the Committee on platform framed the plank declaring for the Australian ballot law. He proves his sincerity and shows his determination to be consistent on the silver question, by repudiating both the old parties.

The Difference.

When a Democrat somewhere in the United States announces that he is now for Harrison the g. o. p. organs put it in big type and ring the changes upon it for weeks, and so it goes when the Democrats catch a flopper. But when Democrats and Republicans flop by the hundreds to the People's party, its papers announce simply that at a given time and place a monster mass meeting or barbecue was held and addressed by the People's party orators.—Silver State.

Evidently the Grand Jury did not believe Mr. Heidenreich when he said Muldoon only worked a team seven and a half days and got $300 from the county for the work.
